

PROUD PLACES

Help us to design a

PUBLIC SCULPTURE

Could you help us to design a piece of public sculpture in the Barbican area?

Work with a professional artist to co-design a permanent sculptural work to be installed outside a new creative community hub near the Barbican.

Workshops & visits from:

MAY - JULY
2025

Works to be exhibited in March 2026

FINAL ARTIST TBC.

To be selected from shortlist of
major contemporary artists

heritageoflondon.org

proudplaces.org

IN COLLABORATION WITH:

FUTURE\CITY

CASTLEFORGE PARTNERS

PROUD PLACES

HERITAGE of LONDON TRUST

Become a Public Artist and MAKE YOUR MARK ON THE CITY

Programme includes:

- Site visits to local heritage sites to learn about the fascinating history of the area.
- An introduction to the history of philanthropy in the City and the history of Cripplegate Institute.
- Professional insight into regeneration, change and building redevelopment with an introduction to the developers and curators involved in the project.
- Creative workshops alongside a professional artist to design maquettes which will be displayed in a public exhibition.
- Work with the local community to create a permanent sculpture in the public realm that reflects the things that interest and inspire you.
- Gain firsthand insight into the commissioning of public art and develop your own creative skills.

FREE
11-18 YEARS

To express interest please contact:

ife.davies@heritageoflondon.org

This is a limited opportunity so please get in touch ASAP

heritageoflondon.org

proudplaces.org

Image - Neon

Image - Anthony Sturgeon Design